2. Unfinished Business:

I. Canada Day

The library board will be meeting on Monday June 20th, 2022 to discuss Canada Day BBQ. Cathy Sutherland received donations from Giant Tiger for the Canada Day BBQ. Snow Cone Valley will donate 100 hot dogs. Cathy will follow up with the committee and let us know if they will need another cook. The Library Board will purchase 80 hamburgers and pre-order all of the buns. The BBQ will be served between 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. Councillor Fran Kelly-Chamberlain, Councillor Chris Dowser, Mayor Debbi Grills and Cathy Sutherland will bring games to Old Mackey Park for the Canada Day celebrations. Mayor Debbi Grills will recite “Oh Canada” before the fireworks.

Actions: Stephany to advertise Canada Day celebrations and the new horseshoe pits in the Newsletter, Facebook, the Community Contact List and on the flyer boards. Bring the fireworks to the kitchen, gather games from the RAC container, Canada pins and recycling bags. Ask Jesse to test the BBQs and look for the high visibility vests in the garage. Find the butcher paper and markers for a Canada day message.

Action: Debbi will wash high visibility vests.

Action: Jesse to bring BBQs and barricades to Old Mackey Park on June 30th, 2022.

Action: Rachel will pick up the games from the RAC container games with her trailer on Thursday June, 30th, 2022 at 12:00 p.m. and return them into the community center On July 1st, 2022 after the event.
