MAYOR – BOB REID

CLERK – MELINDA REITH

Notes to Council meeting – Deputations

Jon Desjardins – Plowing of Old Mackey Park to access the Ottawa River for Ice Fishing

- Jon met with Calvin at the park – discussed moving the turnaround from the graveyard to Old Mackey Park
- Remove the snowbank on the right – where the old boat launch was
- Move the turnaround from the top of the hill to the
- Can incorporate an ice fishing derby
- Nancy Rose – why can't we do it in winter, we do it in summer;
- Clerk explained difference – fact that we have a legal opinion – will present it and a report at the November meeting.
- Cathy McKay – What's the slope like? Limited.
- Calvin – plow has to turn around can just go back up the hill
- Jonathon – we don't need it plowed near the river – just the turnaround with no bank
 - Already on the agenda for next meeting
- Villeneuve - Estimate for what it would cost to plow further down the hill – consider plowing Ashport Road to the railbed to provide a parking lot and the end of Yate's Road for park and ride alleviate some of the parking issues,
- There has been no decision made about the rail bed in HCM
- Mayor Reid – can look to see what the cost will be to plow the park out, so we can use as a comparison for other spaces
- Villeneuve – relieve some of the parking issues that we have
- Mayor Reid – I live there, there is little congestion on Ashport Road
